104.1 WORLD CLASS ROCK'S JENNY-O
FEATURES RAISING CANE ON SANDIA MOUNTAIN JAM

ALBUQUERQUE –Raising Cane's new CD took to the airwaves last Sunday, January 30, when 104.1 KABQ-FM World Class Rock's Jenny-O dedicated a segment of her "Sandia Mountain Jam" show to the up-and-coming New Mexico bluegrass band.

DJ Jenny-O raved about Raising Cane's release during the program.

"We've got a great bluegrass band in our own backyard," Jenny-O said. "When I popped the CD in the player, I was totally enthralled."

104.1 played three of Raising Cane's hits from the self-titled CD: "Dust Tracks on the Road", "Fleckstone", and "Yonder Mountain".

"I had a really hard time picking which tracks to play for you tonight," Jenny-O said to her audience. "I think it's (the CD is) just great."

KABQ-FM is a Clear Channel Communications station with an adult album alternative (AAA) format. It serves the almost 640,000-person Albuquerque/Santa Fe market. The "Sandia Mountain Jam" show runs every Sunday night starting at 10 p.m..

Jenny-O also announced Raising Cane's opening for Peter Rowan and Tony Rice next weekend.

The show is scheduled for February 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the Lobo Theater, 3013 Central Avenue NE in Albuquerque. Tickets go on sale February 1st for $20; $25 at the door. Tickets are available at Bookworks, 4022 Rio Grande Boulevard NW and at Natural Sound, 3422 Central Avenue SE in Albuquerque.
